

Prayers for peace

Dear Lord,

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of the victims of all wars and violence among individuals and nations.

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of all children who suffer and will suffer when people put their faith in weapons and war.

Hear my voice when I beg You to install into the hearts of all human beings the wisdom of peace, the strength of justice, and the joy of fellowship.

Hear my voice, for I speak for the multitudes in every country and in every period of history who do not want war and are ready to walk the road of peace.

Hear my voice and grant insight and strength so that we may always respond to hatred with love, to injustice with total dedication to justice, to need with the sharing of self, to war with peace.

O God, hear my voice and grant unto the world
Your everlasting peace.

Amen.

Dear Lord, look with kindness on our broken world in which there is so much conflict.

May God, our Merciful Father, give wisdom to those who are trying to sustain, protect and build peace through negotiation and diplomacy,

Amen.

Thought for the week 19th June 2022 Feast of Corpus Christi

It's been three years since we have gathered without restriction around our young people as they make their First Holy Communion. Today feels like an important affirmation of what it means to be a Catholic community. We have so missed celebrating this crucial rite of passage in the lives of our children and grandchildren. Let's pray for those receiving communion for the first time this Sunday, Corpus Christi, that they will continue to journey into a relationship with Jesus and feel nourished by the sacrament of his Body and Blood along the way.

The Mass, the Eucharist, Holy Communion are very much at the heart of what it means to be Catholic. This contrasts with many Protestant and non-conformist churches who gather as much, and more, around the Word, as they do around the communion table. Wars were fought in the sixteenth century over the Mass, and whether or not Jesus is truly present in the sacrament of the Eucharist.

Thankfully, differences of approach between different Christian communities are less fraught now. What hasn't changed is how much we Catholics value the Mass as a central part of our parish life; something we cherish both as a coming together, and as food for our journeys. We need the Eucharist, and we need to be part of a community of faith and friendship. The Mass provides both.

I once read the foreword to a book about L'Arche written by Archbishop Robert Runcie who was close to the L'Arche community in Canterbury. In it he recalls a time when he was distributing communion in Canterbury Cathedral. A member of the community, a young man with learning difficulties, came to the altar rail to receive Communion. The Archbishop placed the Eucharist in his cupped hands. The young man looked puzzled, as though he wasn't sure what to do next. There was a moment of tension. Then he smiled, broke the host in two, gave half back to the Archbishop, eating the other half. I think he understood what Jesus was doing.
